

Seminar

Session	Topic
1	Introduction : how to write a proposal
2	To familiarize the students with different chapters of a proposal-An overview
3	Introducing the first chapter of the proposal: Introduction
4	Discussing how to write “ overview”, Statement of the problem”, “Purpose of the study”
5	Discussing how to write “research questions and hypotheses”, “key words”, “ limitations and delimitations of the study
6	Teaching how to write the second chapter: Literature Review
7	Summarizing how to use direct and indirect quotations in the paper and teaching the strategies of summarizing, paraphrasing and quoting
8	Familiarizing with the students with the third chapter: methodology
9	Discussing how to explain about the participants, instruments and data collection procedure
10	finalizing the students’ topics of their proposal
11	Teaching how to write scientifically
12	Introducing the fourth chapter: Results and discussion
13	Get the students familiar with the statistics: SPSS
14	Teaching how to write the fifth chapter: conclusion and implications
15	Discussing References using APA style citation
16	Students hand in their proposal

Evaluation

4 points	Class activities
14 points	proposal

References:

American Psychological Association(APA), Manual Sixth Edition, 2010

Yvonne N. Bui (2014). How to Write a Master's Thesis. Second Edition. Sage publication